ALUMNI CLUB OR AFFINITY GROUP

Taking part in your local alumni club or affinity group is a great way to meet fellow alumni and forge relationships with other intellectually curious, accomplished members of the UChicago community. Alumni clubs and affinity groups provide clear opportunities to connect with alumni from every school and division.

PURPOSE

- Strengthen alumni knowledge of and ties to the University.
- Maintain and grow friendships with other alumni who live in the same region, work in a similar industry, or share an affinity.
- Continue the process of lifelong learning.
- Serve the University, other alumni, students, and the community at large.

STRUCTURE

Each club or group

- Is run, organized, and maintained by volunteers consisting of UChicago alumni, parents, families, and friends.
- Plans and executes regional events and support other opportunities for local engagement.

BENEFITS TO YOU

- Learn about UChicago events and gatherings in your area.
- Grow your personal and professional networks.
- Give back to UChicago through volunteering.
- Put your leadership skills to use energizing alumni in your community and strengthening their—and your—connections to UChicago.
